1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold air.

It was a relief after the heat of the sun.

The snow was deep and soft.
It covered everything in a blanket of white. The trees were like giant sentinels, their branches heavy with snow. The ground was a smooth, undisturbed surface.

The silence was absolute.
No cars, no planes, no voices. Just the soft rustle of snow underfoot.
It was a peaceful solitude. I had never before. The world
felt like a secret.
A place where time stopped. I took a deep breath, the cold
air filling my lungs.
It was perfect.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is faint and mostly illegible due to the quality of the scan and the nature of the bleed-through. Some words are difficult to decipher but appear to be organized into several lines or paragraphs. There are some small, dark marks and ink smudges scattered across the page, particularly in the lower right quadrant.
